

" WOLF DREAMER "

By Carolyn Miller - Schulz AKA "Singletree"

I am Spotted Pony, and this is my song.
When it was time for "The Human Beings"
to walk once more upon the path of war, I went into the forest to my private place,
not far from our encampment.

There I prayed and gave offerings and sang my warrior's song.

I called upon the spirit of my Wolf Brother to blend his spirit with mine, to let his strength enter me, to let me know the hot scent of the enemy in my nostrils, and I prayed for his guidance..that I...we.. may howl the victory to the full moon.. and my brother answered.
